

SUCCESS TO RUNCORN MARKET, MAY IT PROSPER!

You inhabitants of Runcorn
I've wrote a little song,
And if you pay attention
I won't detain you long;
A Market Day in Runcorn
Henceforth we shall enjoy,
And the good old Cheshire farmers,
Our market will supply.
So you'll get the best of everything,
And your money you can lay
Out, to the best advantage
On Runcorn Market Day.
Some gentlemen of Ruucorn
Together did agree,
A Market Day was needed
So they formed a Committee;
To arrange the plans and fix the days,
Which are agreed upon,
So we'll have Market twice a week,
As well as Warrington
The inhabitants of Farnworth
And Widnes thought it queer,
That they should go Warrington,
When Runcorn was so near
To purchase their provisions.
And have expence to pay,
But now they'll come to Runcorn
Upon a Market Day.
On Market day to Runcorn now
You can walk at your ease,

And lay your bit of money out
In Butter, Eggs, and Cheese.
And when in season, you can buy,
New 'Tatoes, Peas and Beans,
Carrots, Turnips, Rhubarb,
Currants, Gooseberrys and Greens
The Committee decided
The farmers to induce,
To give prizes unto those who brings the best of their produce.
So you need not be the least affraid,
You'll never take no harm,
You'll get the best that can be brought
From Garden; Field and Farm.
There's a woman lives at Widnes,
Last week I heard her say,
That she would come to Runcorn,
On this, the Market Day;
She says she'll lay her money out,
On an economic plan,
And she'll buy a sack of curly greens,
To give to her old man.
Success to the Committee,
Success to every one,
They struggled hard together
And their work they nobly done.
Success to all the farmers
Who the Market does supply,
And long life and prosperity
To those who comes to buy.
