THE
HIGHLAND SOCIETY OF LONDON.

INSTITUTED 28TH MAY, 1778,

AND

INCORPORATED 21ST MAY, 1816.

THE OBJECTS.

Preserving the Martial Spirit, Language, Dress,
Music, and Antiquities of the Ancient Caledonians ;

Rescuing from oblivion the valuable remains of Celtic Literature ;

The Establishment and support of Schools in the Highlands of Scotland, and in other parts of the British Empire ;

Relieving distressed Highlanders at a distance from their native homes ; and Promoting the Improvement and general welfare of the northern parts of the Kingdom.

In 1786 the Society instituted an Association for the purchase of lands and for forming free towns, villages, and fishing stations in the Highlands, and in the same year obtained an Act of Parliament by which it was incorporated under the name and style of "The British Society for Extending the Fisheries and Improving the Sea Coasts of this Kingdom."

The Society afterwards assisted in establishing the Public Infirmary at Inverness.

In 1807 the Society published the Poems of Ossian, in the original Gaelic, with a literal translation in Latin, together with a dissertation on the authenticity of the Poems by Sir John Sinclair, Bart, and a translation from the Italian of The Abbè Cesarotti's Dissertation on the Controversy respecting the authenticity of Ossian, with notes and a supplemental essay.

In 1815 the Society originated and established the Royal Caledonian Asylum for supporting and educating the children of soldiers, sailors, and marines, natives of Scotland, who had died or been disabled in the service of their country, and those of indigent Scottish parents resident in London, and subscribes annually towards its Funds.

In 1837 the Society offered a prize for the best History of the Highland Clans, which was obtained by William F. Skene, F.S.A., Scotland, and the work was shortly afterwards published under the patronage of the Society.

In 1841 the Society published a literal translation of the genuine Remains of Ossian, with a preliminary dissertation.

In 1859 the Society originated and chiefly aided in forming and establishing the London Scottish Rifle Volunteers.

In 1867 the Society instituted a Bursary of the value of £50 per annum, tenable for four years, at any University which the successful student may elect.

The Society gives annually a medal to the best player of pibrochs at the Northern Meeting at Inverness.

CONSTITUTION.

1st. The Society consists of a President, Five Vice-Presidents, Three Treasurers, Three Auditors, Twelve Directors, Two Secretaries, a Deputy Secretary, Two Chaplains, and an indefinite number of Members.

2nd. The President, or in his absence one or more of the Vice-Presidents, Treasurers, or Auditors, with any Seven or more Members of the said Corporation, of whom Two at the least shall be Directors; or (in the absence of the President, all the Vice-Presidents, Treasurers, and Auditors) any Twenty or more of the Members of the said Corporation, of whom Three at the least shall be Directors, shall compose a General Court.

3rd. The custody of the Common Seal, and the use and application thereof can only be ordered and disposed of by a General Court.

4th. At the General Court holden on the third Saturday in February, in each year, there shall be chosen a President, Five Vice-Presidents, Three Treasurers, Three Auditors, Twelve Directors, One or more Secretaries, and Two Chaplains, to serve for the space of one year only, to commence from the 21st day of March then next ensuing ; and in case any of the Offices aforesaid shall have become vacant by death, resignation, or otherwise, a person shall from time to time be chosen by the Committee to serve in such Office during the remainder of the term.

5th. The General Court having the power to delegate the management of the affairs of the Society to a Committee, the said Committee shall consist of the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurers, Auditors, Directors, and Secretaries, for the time being, and of all those Members who have served the Office of President, Vice-President, Treasurer, or Secretary.

6th. The said Committee, as above described, to be elected at a General Court, which shall be holden the third Saturday in the month of February in each year and to serve for the space of one year, commencing from 21st March next ensuing.

7th. All business for the consideration of the Society shall be submitted in the first instance to the Committee of Management, who will be bound to lay it before the next following General Court of the Members of the Corporation, accompanied by such amendments or alterations (if any), as the Committee may consider it advisable for the Society to adopt:—the General Court reserving to itself the power to alter, or reject altogether, both propositions, and amendments.

8th. No Bye-Law, Rule, or Ordinance, shall be binding, or have any force or effect, until the same shall have been agreed to at a general Court, and confirmed by the next succeeding General Court, whether Ordinary or Special; and the same method shall be observed in altering or repealing any such Bye-Law, Rule, or Ordinance.

9th. The sum to be paid by Members elect, shall be Twelve Guineas each, and no reduction shall be made in this amount unless the same shall be agreed to, and confirmed by, the two next succeeding regular General Courts.

10th. All Questions at any General Courts, or in Committee of Management, are to be decided by Vote; and in case of an equality of Votes, the President, or Chairman, shall, in addition to his deliberate Vote, have the Casting Vote, except in the case of the Election of Members, which is hereinafter provided for.

I did not see that I was called upon to pay largely as well as work hard and so declined to become a Member several times. H. F. 70

GENERAL COURTS.

1st. A General Court of the Corporation shall be holden four times at least every year; that is to say, on the third Saturdays of the months of February, April, and May, and on the 21st of March (being the anniversary of the Battle of Alexandria), but should that day fall on a Sunday or Good Friday, then the said General Court shall be holden on the 22nd; and notice of each such General Court shall be given in two of the Public Newspapers ten days at least before the day appointed for the holding of every such Court.

2nd. A Special General Court shall be holden by order of the Committee, or upon a requisition signed by Nine Members of the Society, and addressed to one of the Secretaries for the time being, notice of which briefly specifying the objects, shall be given in two of the Public Newspapers ten days at least before the holding of every such Court.

3rd. The Four General Courts directed by the Act of Incorporation to be holden in each year shall be considered Public Meetings of the Society. At each of those Meetings, so soon as a sufficient number of Members shall be present, the Court shall be opened and the Business of the Day shall be disposed of, and the whole or any part of such Business may, in the discretion of the Meeting, or as convenience may dictate, be adjourned or deferred; and the President or Chairman of the Meeting shall give directions for summoning a Special General Court to dispose of the same. These Meetings shall be followed by a Dinner of the Society, to which strangers, invited by Members, may be admitted.

4th. The General Meeting to be holden on the 21st of March in each year, to celebrate the Anniversary of the glorious BATTLE OF ALEXANDRIA, is the established Anniversary Festival of the Society. Tickets of Admission for that occasion shall be issued to Members at a price to be regulated by the Committee; and the Committee shall have power to invite, at the expense of the Society, such guests as they may consider advisable for its interests.

5th. At every General Meeting of the Society, each Member may introduce one or more Visitors, paying for his or their Tickets, at the same rate as that fixed for Members.

6th. That Officers present at the BATTLE of ALEXANDRIA be invited to attend the Anniversary Dinner as the guests of the Society, together with any eminent Scotsmen, not exceeding twelve, whose names shall have been previously submitted to the Committee and approved of, and who shall have done good service to their country.

7th. As the preservation of the Garb of the Ancient Caledonians is considered one of the original objects of the Society, and as the general adoption thereof at Public Meetings would essentially tend to excite and preserve the National Spirit of Highlanders, which has been so conspicuously and so honourably displayed on all occasions, and in all parts of the world, the Directors, Office Bearers, and Secretaries for the time being, are expected to appear in the Highland Garb at all General Courts; and it is earnestly recommended to all other Members of the Society, to assume the distinguishing Garb of Highlanders at all the public Meetings of the Corporation.

COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT.

1st. A Meeting of the Committee of Management (Five to be a quorum) shall be holden four times at least in every year, viz. :—on the first Tuesday in the months of February, March, April, and May; and whenever occasion shall require, a Special Meeting shall be holden by order of any General Court, or upon the requisition of the President, or any Two of the Vice-Presidents, Treasurers, Auditors, or Directors, or of any Five Members, signified in writing to one of the Secretaries, and subscribed by such Officers or Members; and notice of each such Meeting shall be given to every Member of the said Committee, five days at least before the holding of any such Meeting.

2nd. It being an object of importance to the welfare of the Society, that all the Office Bearers should attend the General Courts as well as the Meetings of the Committee of Management, it is enacted that the Four Members attending the Meetings of the Society, General Courts or Meetings of the Committee, the fewest number of times in the season shall cease to be Members of Committee.

3rd. That the above rule do not apply to the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurers, Auditors, or Chaplains of the Society; but that it be strictly enforced as regards all other Members of the Committee of Management.

4th. The four regular Meetings of the Committee shall be followed by a Dinner; and to cover the expense thereof a Subscription shall be opened upon the Election of Officers in each year; each of the Three Treasurers, Three Auditors, and Twelve Directors shall, at the commencement of each season, pay such amount as may be determined on, towards the expense of such meetings, in full of all Charges and Demands attending the same, and at the last Meeting of the financial year, viz., the first Tuesday in March, a list of such Subscriptions remaining unpaid shall be made out by the Secretary, and laid before the Committee.

5th. To avoid the expense of ordering Dinner for a greater number than is necessary, the Members of the Committee are requested to intimate their intention of attending or not, by letter to the Secretary, the day before each Meeting at the latest.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

1st. Persons qualified for being proposed Members are natives of the Highlands of Scotland,—Sons, or Descendants of Highlanders,—Proprietors of Land in the Highlands,—Individuals who have done signal service to that part of the Kingdom,—Officers serving or who have served in Highland Corps,—and Husbands of Highland Ladies.

2nd. Persons desirous of becoming Members of this Society shall be proposed at one of the General or Special General Courts, or at any Meeting of the Committee, by one Member of the Corporation, and seconded by another, who shall insert in a Book kept for that purpose, the name, qualification, and place of abode of such person, together with their own names; and each of the persons so proposed shall be severally put in nomination at the next ensuing General or Special General Court; and the Members then present shall proceed to a Ballot; and such person shall be declared elected if approved of by three parts in four of the Members balloting, or excluded if one or more black balls in four appear against him; and shall, before his admission, pay into the hands of one of the Treasurers of the Society, the sum of Twelve Guineas, which shall constitute his Life-Subscription.

3rd. Twenty persons, and no more, may be elected Honorary Members, though not regularly qualified according to the above regulations.

4th. The elections of all persons who have not paid their admission fee within one year, shall be declared void, and their names shall be struck out of the list.

5th. In case the conduct of any Member, either in or out of the Society, shall in the opinion of the Committee, or any Ten Members of the Society, who shall certify the same to them in writing, be injurious to the character and interest of the Society, the Committee is empowered to recommend such Member to resign; and if such Member shall not do so within a month from the date of such letter of recommendation, the Committee shall have power to summon a General Court of the Corporation, for the purpose of deciding as to the erasure of his name from the List of Members, and upon his name being erased, he shall be for ever afterwards ineligible as a Candidate.

FINANCE.

1st. In future, 50 per Cent. of all Donations and Life Subscriptions shall be Funded, and the remaining 50 per Cent. made available for general purposes for the current year.

2nd. At the end of the financial year (21st March) of each season, the Treasurers shall, for the information of the Society, draw up and submit to the Auditors, not later than the 14th of April, an Account of the Income and Expenditure of the preceding year; an Account of the Life-Subscriptions collected, showing the distribution thereof; the portions added to the Capital; and the Donations, together with a General Statement of the Funds and Property of the Corporation; and these shall be submitted to the Committee on the first Tuesday in the month of May following.

BRANCHES.

1st. In order the more effectually to promote the objects of the Society, and to enable the Natives of Scotland in general, and of the Highlands in particular, and those connected with Scotland by alliance, friendship, or otherwise, to cultivate social intercourse among themselves, and to strengthen their attachment to their Native Land, wherever they may happen to reside, Branches of the Society may be established either in any of the British Settlements, or in any Foreign Country, where any number of Scotsmen are settled; and a Commission for that purpose, subscribed by the President and Secretary, and addressed to those who are the most likely to take a pride and pleasure in being connected with this Society, shall be issued, authorising them to form such Branches, and to constitute those Branches on principles the best calculated to promote the objects of the Society under the peculiar circumstances of each place.

2nd. To every such Branch, an Account of the Origin and Progress of the Society, the objects for which it was constituted, and the Rules by which it is governed will be transmitted, with such other information or papers as may, from time to time, be circulated among the members.

3rd. Gentlemen admitted into any of the Branches established Abroad, on subscribing to the Rules, and contributing at once to the Fund of the Parent Society, the full Subscription of Twelve Guineas each, or Six Guineas while remaining Abroad, and Six Guineas additional on their arrival in London, shall become Members of the Society in London, without Ballot, and receive a Diploma accordingly.

Hiddry Lodge,
Kensington.

Sir

In reply to your letter of yesterday I beg you to convey to the Highland Society of America my best thanks for the distinguished honor
which they have conferred in electing me to be an honorary member of a society of my countrymen which has laboured ~~so~~ long and successfully

in promoting the object
set forth in the book which you have been so kind as to forward
with your letter -

So far as my abilities go I shall be glad to continue to advance
the cause of ^{Celtic} Gaelic literature
and so to promote some of the objects for which the society

of which I am now
a member was originally constituted.

I am about to read
a paper on the Population ^{status} of the Highlands before the Ethnological Society, and I shall be glad to have the support and
aid ~~assistance~~ of brother members who take an interest in this branch of celtic literature.

mean time I thank you for your letter

and

I have the honor to be

your obedient servant

J. F. Campbell

attended a dinner
in full fig and came to the conclusion
that this is a remnant of the ancient dining clubs with a good deal of drink.

2^d That these who frequent the dinners chiefly care not the genuine article but Londoners making
believe to be Highlanders
one of them is translating the Queen's book into Gaelic

The Queen's book will not be read in Gaelic
by the classes who speak Gaelic so that is waste of power -
The whole thing struck me as make believe
so I will have nothing to do with directing
it.
