Regulations.

1mo, The old fares are repealed, and those before mentioned are substituted in lieu thereof, to be calculated by the hour or mile only.

2do, That the number of each Coach shall be delivered by the Magistrates, and affixed as they shall direct; and that there shall not be the same number on two Coaches; and that no Coach wanting such number shall be allowed to ply.

3tio, That no insufficient Coach or Horses shall be allowed to ply; and when any of the proper furniture of coach steps, springs, blinds, glasses, or check-strings for stopping the coach, are wanting, it shall be lawful to detain from the hire one shilling, or the whole hire, if it shall not amount to more. The coachman always to keep the check-strings in his left hand when driving, under a penalty not exceeding five shillings.

4to, That there shall not be fewer than five coaches on the different stands by nine o'clock in the morning, the coaches taking their rotation according to their arrival on the stand under a penalty of ten shillings; and that all coachmen attending for a fare, shall either sit on the coach-box or stand at the horses' head, under the penalty of two shillings and sixpence for each offence, and that no fewer than five coaches shall continue to ply till twelve o'clock at night.

5to, That when a company has taken a coach at twelve o'clock at night or after it, fare and half shall be paid; but no additional fares shall be charged from the theatre or assembly rooms.

6to, That the stances for the coaches shall be as follows:—Prince's street east end, Prince's street west end, Tron Church, College, George's street between south and north Frederick street, and west end of York place, or at such other places as the Magistrates from time to time may appoint.

7mo, Coachmen are not on any account to plead prior engagements when their services are required, nor shall they be allowed to draw to one side of the stand under pretence of being engaged, so as to have the pick of work, but their coaches being on, or near the stand, to be considered a proof of their being disengaged.

8vo, That upon failure of performing any engagement undertaken by any of the owners of hackney-coaches or their coachmen, they shall be liable in a penalty of ten shillings, and also forfeit any claim for hire, for having performed part of the engagement only.

9no, That no fares higher than those in the prefixed table shall be demanded or taken; and if any coachman shall be convicted of imposing on his employers, or abstracting the fares from his master, he shall be punished with severity; and every coachman shall have in his pocket a printed copy of these regulations and annexed tables on a piece of parchment to be kept in a tin-box, with the number of the coach painted on it, to be in possession of the coachman at all times when on duty, and which must be shewn to every employer when demanded, under a penalty not exceeding five shillings.

10mo, That any coachman on misbehaviour, by abusive language or otherwise, upon being convicted thereof, the Magistrates may revoke his licence, or inflict a penalty; and on non-payment he shall be committed to prison till the same is paid.

11mo, That the coachman, after setting down a company, shall drive to the nearest stand, and if the number of coaches ordered to stand there is not complete, he shall remain for the service of the public.

12mo, That at least one-fourth part of the coaches by rotation shall ply on Sunday's, from ten o'clock forenoon until ten at night, at the ordinary fares.

13tio, That the fare to Leith, during the race week, for one hour before and one hour after the horses starting, shall be ten shillings for the first hour, and one shilling for every half hour.

14<sup>to</sup>, That there shall be no additional charge made for taking up or setting down any part of a company unless the coach shall be detained.

15<sup>to</sup>, That each coachman shall be cleanly in his person, wear a ticket on the front of his coat, with the number corresponding to that on his coach, under the penalty of five shillings for each offence by not wearing it.

16<sup>to</sup>, Parties returning by the same coach from any place whether in town or at a distance in the country, to pay one half fare additional as back fare.

17<sup>mo</sup>, That these regulations be enforced by the Magistrates or Judge of Police.
