Charles Herriot, bookfeller, and bookbinder, in the parliament houfe, is now removed to a fhop, under the general poft office, eaft corner of the parliament clofe, where he continues to buy and fell books, ruled and unruled, of various kinds, in the ftationary way, as he did formerly.

The Publisher takes this opportunity to acquaint the Public, that he will always make it his study, to dispatch all letters and parcels, not exceeding three pounds in weight, to any place within an English mile to the east, south, and west, of the Cross of Edinburgh, and as far as south and north Leith, every hour through the day, for one Penny each letter or bundle.

Letters and parcels, for the Penny-post, are taken in at the following places, viz.

1. By Peter Williamson, at his printing-house, in Swan's close, a little above the guard north-side
2. By Mr John Wilson, bookseller, front of exchange.
3. Mr James Grant, grocer, head of Halkerston's wynd,
4. Mr James Anderson, grocer, head of Chalmer's close.
5. Mr John Andrew, grocer, head of the uppermost entry to James's court.
6. Mr William Lockhart, shoe-maker, third door within the cowgate head.
7. Mr William Ramage, grocer, opposite Georges's square, Bristo-street.

17. Mr Robert Williamson, vintner, on the shore of Leith.
18. Mr George Maitland, vintner, head of the kirkgate

The public will observe, that the conductor of this scheme, will not be answerable for any letters, or parcels, but those that are put into any of the above offices, and such as are given to his men, on the streets, that wear hats, with the words, Penny post, on them; which letters, &c. will be marked, before they are delivered, with a round stamp, Penny-post not paid, with black ink; and those paid, with red ink, Penny-post paid. All letters delivered by the Penny-post men, without being stamped, as above, are an infringement on the master's property. If the deliverer of any letters, &c. shall presume to impose upon any person, by charging more than one penny for each letter or parcel, or keeping up the letters, &c. too long, such persons as are imposed upon, will be so good as give notice, and they shall have immediate redress.

THE
OF THE
BRITISH FARMER
ACCOUNTANT,

Adapted to the four Seasons of the Year,

WHEREIN

The Gentlemen Farmers have a Plan of Books entirely new, and suitable to their Occupation. The Method here laid down, is so rational and obvious, that it may be practised by any one who understands the common Rules of Arithmetic.

By following this Plan, the FARMER can, with very little trouble, know the Situation of his Affairs at any Season.

TOGETHER WITH

A Plan of Sowing Book for the Spring Season; also, a Calculation for the Harvest Season, with every other Occurance in the Farming way.

By JOHN ROSE, ACCOMPTANT.
