No price is good enough for good counsel.

The Gatherer.

Something to everyone is good division.

Take this remark from Richard, poor and lame,
What is begun in anger, ends in shame.

FRANKLIN.

FORCEMEAT is a corruption of farce-meat, from the French frace, stuffing—i.e., meat for stuffing.

PARSLEY is said to have come from Egypt, and mythology tells us that it was used to adorn the head of Hercules.

THE biggest edible oysters in the world are found in Australia. They measure sometimes more than a foot across the shell.

ALTHOUGH the Suez Canal is only 99 miles long it reduces the distance from England to India by sea nearly 4,000 miles.

IT is a curious fact that the countries of the tallest and shortest people of Europe—the Norwegians and the Lapps—adjoin each other.

A MODERATE wind moves at the rate of seven miles per hour; a storm at the rate of thirty-six miles; and a hurricane at the rate of eighty miles.

"NEVER read a book," says the late Professor Jowett, "because everyone is talking about it; wait till it blows over. Let the world do your selection for you."

"FAMILIARITY breeds contempt" is taken literally from a sentence in Plutarch's "Morals."

WHAT English word is there the first two letters of which signify a man, the first three a woman, the first four a great man, and the whole a great woman? "Heroine."

THOUSANDS of unreflecting persons still confer a cruel and spurious "charity" upon tramps. A beggar at Wandsworth lately remarked: "I never intend to work while I can get 16s. a day and my skin full. It is only flogs and horses that work."

BETWEEN Dickens and his imitators of to-day there is a difference as vast as that which separates a genuine Strad. from a White-chapel fiddle made to look like one.

"HE is a wise child that knows his own father," is from a passage in the "Odyssey," where Telemachus says, "My mother indeed says that I am his (child); for myself I know not, for never man yet knew his own father."

A SMALL fruiterer in Paris recently advertised in the papers that he would give a prize of 5*fr.* for the largest apple that was sent him. In less than a fortnight he received altogether 15 sacks full of apples, and gladly paid 5*fr.* for the largest in the lot—keeping, of course, the unsuccessful specimens for sale.

From small profits and many expenses

CHINESE SAYING.

NEGRO children are never glossy black until quite six years old.

INSURANCE companies claim that cycling is more dangerous than travelling either by railway or by ship.

THE Germans are, in a homely way, the most sentimental race on the face of the earth.

"His bark is worse than his bite" is as old as Quintus Curtius, who himself cites it as a proverb.

To ensure cleanliness in the handling of bread, the bakers of Berlin put each loaf in a paper bag just after it is baked.

THE making of lucifer matches is a State monopoly in France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Roumania, and Servia.

MACARONI is taken from a Greek derivation, which means "the blessed dead," in allusion to the ancient custom of eating it at feasts for the dead.

You can never read bad literature too little, nor good literature too much. Bad books are intellectual poison—they destroy the mind.

METHOD is essential, and enables a larger amount of work to be got through with satisfaction. Method is like packing things in a box; a good packer will get in half as much again as a bad one.

THE women who believe themselves perfect because they are economical, and consider the spring cleaning of their house the greatest event of the year, grow old before their time, and are never good companions.

IN some theatres in America a notice is fixed to the curtain: "The play will not commence until those hats come off." If managers here would adopt some idea of the same sort, theatre-goers might have a chance of seeing something for their money.

A KING mourned for the loss of his wife, and a philosopher promised to raise her up provided there could be found three thoroughly happy persons whose names might be engraved on the tomb of the queen. But these three persons could never be found.

OUR atmosphere extends five hundred miles upwards, according to the most recent theories. It was formerly held that there was no air above sixty miles, but astronomers observe that meteors, which are bright only when travelling through our atmosphere, are sometimes apparently as high above our heads as five hundred miles.

Good Manners Wanted.

*What's a fine person, or a beautiful face,
Unless deportment gives them decent grace?
Bless'd with all other requisites to please,
Some want the striking elegance of ease;
The curious eye their awkward movement tires,
They seem like puppets led about by wires:
Others like statues, in one posture still,
Give great ideas of the workman's skill.
Wond'ring his art, we praise the more we view,
And only grieve he gave not motion too.*

CHURCHILL.

The Merry Companion.

Life is a jest, and all things show it.—GAY.

Gerald: "Can you give me no hope?"
Geraldine: "None whatever; I'm going to marry you."

Dolly: "Fred called me an angel last night." Molly: "Yes; he told me he thought you were rather flighty."

Minnie: "Oh, I say, Winnie, what do they mean by a dead letter?" Winnie: "I expect it's a letter that mother gives dad to post."

George: "Don't you think a girl should marry an economical man?" Dolly: "I suppose so; but it's just awful being engaged to one."

Maud: "And you believe all fields are open to women now?" Bob: "Yes; but she doesn't care to go into the ones where the cows are."

Joker (in tramway car): "Anybody dropped a sovereign?" Nine men and two women (hurriedly): "Yes."

Joker: "Well, here's a half-penny of it, anyway."

The Fiancée: "I'm sure that you would be cool in the presence of danger."
The Fiancé: "Well, I don't like to boast, but you should have seen the way I kept my nerve when I called on your father."

Mamma: "Now then, Charlie, don't you admire my new silk dress?" Charlie (with emphasis): "Yes, mamma." Mamma: "And, Charlie, all the silk is provided by a poor worm." Charlie: "Do you mean dad?"

HUMAN nature's a queer thing. For instance, if a young man tells a girl—any girl—that she's altogether different from her sisters she always takes it as a compliment.

Bobby: "Oh, Mr. Bristles, I wish I had a moustache just like yours." Mr. B.: "Ah! Then you think it's becoming, Bobby?"
Bobby: "No; but if I had that thing on my face none of these old ladies'd be always trying to kiss me!"

Teacher: "Tommy Brown, tell me the shape of the earth." Tommy: "Round."
Teacher: "How do you know?" Tommy Brown: "You told me." Teacher: "Well, how do you suppose I know?" Tommy Brown: "Oh! I s'pose somebody told you."

"HORATIUS," said the indignant wife, "I don't believe you've heard a word I've said, and here I've been talking for half-an-hour."
"Well," said the husband, "who could believe it? You seem just as fresh as when you started."

She: "Do you believe in long engagements?" He: "Well, no—not if one wants to have enough money to set up housekeeping with."

Ethel: "Are you sure that all his thoughts are of yoff?" Edith: "Oh, yes! Why he has just lost his position on account of inattention to business!"

Idealist: "True happiness is found in pursuing something, not catching it." Ordinary Man: "The man who pursues the last omnibus at night knows better."

Inmate of Asylum (to new one): "And how is it you're here, dear boy?" The New Inmate: "Well, y' see, the gov'nor hadn't influence enough to get me into the War Office."

"WAS your elopement with Miss Goldberg a success?" "Hardly." "What went wrong?" "Her father, the millionaire, sent us a telegram saying, "Do not return and all will be forgiven!"

Farmer Hayditch (to his neighbour, Farmer Turniptop): "Hallo! Going in for barbed-wire fencing, eh? Isn't it rather dear."
Turniptop: "Yes, but then you see my men don't waste time sitting on it."

"How about references?" inquired the mistress. "Oh, I loike yer looks, mum," said the applicant for the position of housemaid, "an' I won't ask yer for references."

On the honeymoon.—Rose: "I think, Clarence, we had better move to another hotel." Clarence: "Why, Rose, we are delightfully situated." Rose: "I know, Clarence; but the people here have seen all my new dresses."

"THAT new man of yours," said the director of the co-operative store to the manager, "seems to be a hard worker." "Yes," replied the latter, "that is his speciality." "What—working?" "No—seeming to."

Smythe: "I dropped a halfpenny in front of a blind beggar to-day to see if he'd pick it up." Tomkins: "Well, did he?" Smythe: "Not a bit of it. He said, 'Make it a sixpence, governor, and I'll forget myself.'"

Customer: "What sort of a chicken do you call this?" Waiter: "That, sir, is, I believe, a Plymouth Rock." Customer: "Ah, I'm glad it has some historic interest. I never thought it was anything else than an ordinary cobblestone."

The Best Name.

*I asked my fair one happy day
What I should call her in my lay;
By what sweet name from Rome or Greece.
Lalage, Neæra, Chloris,
Sappho, Lesbia, or Doris,
Arethusa or Lucrece.*

"Ah!" replied my gentle fair,
"Beloved, what are names but air?
Choose thou whatever suits the line;
Call me Sappho, call me Chloris,
Call me Lalage or Doris,
Only, only call me thine."

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

The work to be done in January depends greatly on the state of the weather. If frost and snow prevail, the chief thing to be attended to is the protection of plants with litter, dry leaves, cinder ashes, Russia mats, etc. After each fall shake the snow off evergreens, as they are often much harmed by the alternate thawing and freezing of snow-water. Should the weather be favourable, sow early peas in the beginning of the month, and on slight hotbeds sow salads, carrots, and kidney beans. Lay edgings in fine weather. Mignonette, etc., may be sown in pots, and a few hardy annuals on a warm border. In houses, cinerarias, primulas, camellias, etc., will now be in flower.

SANDRINGHAM CHURCH.

PRINCE EDWARD OF YORK.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was married on the 6th of July, 1893, to Princess Victoria Mary of Teck. A son, Prince Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David, was born to the royal pair on the 23rd of June, 1894, who will, in the course of nature, succeed to the throne of the British Empire. We give the portrait of our future monarch on a preceding page.

ALCOHOLIC EFFECTS.

SPEAKING about the different effects produced by stimulants on different people, Dr. Norman Kerr says that he found a glass of spirits will make one man violent, another drowsy, a third merry, a fourth melancholy, and so on.

He had known a landed proprietor who never had family prayer in his house except when he returned home from a drinking bout; and then, no matter the hour of the morning—be it one, three, four, or five—he awakened the whole household and insisted on their coming downstairs for prayers.

SANDRINGHAM CHURCH.

The church of St. Mary Magdalene at Sandringham dates back to quite early times. It has been twice enlarged by our present monarch, since the purchase—when he was Prince of Wales—of his Norfolk seat.

The King has caused several monuments, busts, etc., to be placed there, conspicuous amongst them being busts of the late Princess Alice and the Emperor Frederick, and a medallion to the late Duke of Albany.

WHEN STAYING IN A HOTEL.

THERE are eight cardinal rules, says a globe-trotter, to be observed by the hotel-guest. They are as follows:—

Never arrive at a hotel famishing; it puts you at a disadvantage.

Never stay at a terminus-hotel, unless you have positive information about it.

Never dismiss the cabman, nor allow your luggage to be carried upstairs, till you have taken your rooms.

Never accept the first rooms offered.

Never agree to any terms which do not include attendance and lighting.

Never omit to ascertain the prices of meals.

Never, if you contemplate staying for more than a week, omit to demand your bill at the end of the first two days.

THE FORBIDDEN BOOK.

*A little maid upon my knee
Sighs wearily, sighs wearily;
"I'm tired of dressin' dolls
And having stories read," says she.*

*"There is a book, if I could see,
I should be happy puffckly!
My Mamma keeps it on a shelf—
'But that you cannot have,' says she!"*

*"But here's your 'Old Man of the Sea,
And 'Jack the Giant'!" (Lovingly
I tried the little maid to soothe.)*

"The interestin' one," says she,

*"Is that high up one!—seems to me
The fings you want just has to be Somefing you hasn't got; and that's
The interestin' one!" says she.*

The tendency of this month to wet, and its uncertain temperature, are expressed proverbially:—

“February fills the dyke [ditch] Either with black or white.”

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

In the kitchen garden in the beginning and end of the month sow peas and beans, and transplant to the bottom of a south wall a few of the peas sown in November for a first crop. Plant chives, shallots, and horse-radish, and early ash-leaved potatoes. In the last week sow red cabbages and savoy. Plant strawberries about the end of this month. Before the buds are much swelled prune apricots, peaches, nectarines and plums, and also apples, pears, cherries, gooseberries, currants and raspberries before the end of the month. In the last week sow mignonette and hardy annuals in a warm border for transplanting. Protect wall-trees from east wind.

THE TRIAL OF WHITAKER WRIGHT

THE TRIAL OF WHITAKER WRIGHT.

THE career of Whitaker Wright, who for some years played a leading part as the King of Stock Exchange gambling, came to a tragic close on the 26th of January, 1904. After a careful trial in the King's Bench Court he was convicted and sentenced to seven years' penal servitude. In less than an hour after hearing his sentence he expired, a post-mortem examination showing that he had terminated his career by taking cyanide of potassium.

THE MAKING OF MATCHES.

THE story is told against the Scotsman that he only uses his own matches when he has ascertained that all his fellow-travellers have none; but when it is noted that one hundred gross of boxes of matches can be made for a labour cost of 13s. 6d., it seems remarkable that any English fellow-traveller should not have a box!

Here the introduction of machine methods has decreased the cost of manufacture to one-eighth the cost in 1844.

In the machine process machines are used to cut the wood into splints, to place them in the dipping frame, to dip them in the sulphur and composition, and to remove them from the frame, and even to put them into boxes. This marvellous series of operations is done for 1,440,000 matches in less than eight hours, and then the packing, done by six women, takes 21 hours 42 minutes. The chief expense lies in the packing.

FEET AT HOME AND ABROAD.

THE French foot is narrow and long.

The Spanish foot is small and elegantly curved—thanks to its Moorish blood—corresponding to the Castilian's pride of being "high in the instep."

The Arab's foot is proverbial for its high arch. The Koran says that a stream of water can run under the true Arab's foot without touching it.

The foot of the Scot is high and thick; that of the Irishman flat and square; the Englishman's short and fleshy.

When Athens was in her zenith the Grecian foot was the most perfectly formed and exactly proportioned of that of any of the human race.

Swedes, Norwegians, and Germans have the largest feet; Americans the smallest.

Tartarian toes are all the same length.

MUSIC.

THERE is music in all things if men had ears.—Byron.

Music is the medicine of the breaking heart.—Sir A. Hunt.

Let me have music dying and I seek no more delight.—Keats.

Music washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life.—Auerbach.

Music is the child of prayer, the companion of religion.—Chateaubriand.

Sweet melodies are those that are by distance made more sweet.—Wordsworth.

Music is the only sensual gratification which mankind may indulge in to excess without injury to their moral or religious feelings.—Addison.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

The main crop of all vegetables—peas, beans, cabbages, onions, leeks, carrots, etc.—should now be sown. Sow asparagus, cauliflower, sea-kale and celery in the last fortnight, and plant the main crop of potatoes; these last should be set in rows two feet apart and ten inches between the sets. Finish the pruning of fruit trees. Fruit trees and shrubs may be transplanted, but that work should have been done in November. The operation of grafting is to be begun in the third week of the month. In the last week sow hardy annuals in the borders. Autumn-planted bulbs and spring flowers will now be making some show in the garden. Sow borage for bees.

FISHERMEN'S HOSPITAL, GREAT YARMOUTH.

CURIOUS SALT DEPOSITS.

ONE of the unique sights of California is the remarkable salt deposits at Salton. This region lies in a depression, some 300 feet below sea-level, and is thought at one time to have been the bed of an ancient sea or lake. The tract of land looks like a vast snowfield.

The rock salt deposits cover about 1,000 acres, and are now worked for commercial purposes. The output from this place is about 2,000 tons of salt annually, valued at from 6 to 34 dollars per ton. The labour is done chiefly by Indians.

AT GREAT YARMOUTH.

THE seaport, watering-place, and important fishing station known as Great Yarmouth is a place well worth visiting. Its chief features are the north and south quays, and the straight narrow lanes, over a hundred and forty in number, called "rows" running at right angles to them. The market-place is one of the largest in the Kingdom, having an area of about three acres. There are not many buildings of importance, but there are several admirable charitable and benevolent institutions, amongst them being the Fishermen's Hospital, shown in our engraving. This hospital is now in the third century of its existence, having been founded in 1702.

FOUR GREAT POETS.

THE four greatest names in English poetry are almost the first we come to: Chaucer, Spenser, Shakespeare, and Milton. There are no others that can really be put in competition with these. In comparing these four writers together, it might be said that Chaucer excels as the poet of manners or of real life; Spenser as the poet of romance; Shakespeare as the poet of nature (in the largest use of the term); and Milton as the poet of morality. Chaucer most frequently describes things as they are; Spenser as we wish them to be; Shakespeare as they would be; and Milton as they ought to be.

THE GIRLS THAT ARE WANTED.

The girls that are wanted are good girls—

Good from the heart to the lips;

Pure, as the lily is white and pure

From its heart to its sweet leaf-tips.

The girls that are wanted are home girls—

Girls that are mother's right hand.

That fathers and mothers can trust in,

And the little ones understand—

Girls that are fair on the hearthstone,

And pleasant when nobody sees;

Kind and sweet to their own folks,

Ready and anxious to please.

The girls that are wanted are wise girls,

That know what to do and say;

That drive with a smile and a loving word

The gloom of the household away.

BRIGHAM YOUNG.

THE KING OF DENMARK.

DEATH OF LORD BEACONSFIELD. 1881

THE CROWN PRINCE OF GREECE DRIVING THROUGH LARISSA

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

THIS is a busy month in the kitchen garden. Asparagus, sea-kale, beet, carrots and onion's, etc., should now be sown on heavy soils. Sow cauliflower, cabbages and lettuce, and finish the planting of the main crop of potatoes. Hoe and thin spinach, onions, turnips, etc., and earth-up cabbages, cauliflower, peas, beans, and early potatoes.

Early Dutch turnips may be sown. In the fruit garden disbudding—that is to say, relieving the shoots of wall-trees of some of their buds just when they begin growing—is to be attended to. Sow all sorts of annuals. Plant and prune roses. Plant out tender deciduous trees and shrubs. Transplant hardy biennials.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

THE work of hoeing and earthing-up the different crops is to be gone on with. Cabbages, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts, peas, beans, etc., should now be sown for late crops. The peas that are in progress must be staked. Keep on the look-out for weeds, and destroy them whenever seen. Make war on caterpillars on gooseberry bushes and wall-trees. Plant out annuals raised in pots, and sow annuals for succession. Herbaceous border plants should now be thinned out and staked. Pansies, daisies, and double wallflowers should now be propagated by dividing the roots. If heartsease be now propagated in cuttings and placed in a shady border it will flower in autumn.

THE BOMBARDMENT OF PORT ARTHUR.

IN LIVERY.

THE word "livery" is of French origin, derived from the verb livrer, to "deliver." The custom of clothing servants in livery probably originated in France. At the plenary courts under the first two races of monarchs the king made a custom of delivering to his servants particular clothes, which were called livrées, because given at the King's expense.

In like manner the nobility and gentry gave their dependents liveries, and various colours were adopted by different masters to distinguish one another's servants. Sometimes the livery consisted only of a particular mark or badge.

The term "livery" formerly had a wider significance, and sometimes denoted both the food and clothes of the servants, and also the meat and drink that were served to guests.

EASY SLAVERY IN PERSIA.

SLAVERY in Persia is as little of an evil as such an infringement of natural rights can be. The serfs are regarded as confidential servants, and often married to their masters' children. Well and respectfully treated, they seldom abuse the confidence placed in them, and should they err the greatest punishment that can be inflicted on them is to set them free. A Persian may give a slave to a friend, but he will not sell one till he has parted with the shirt from his back.

Slaves being so fortunate, it follows that free servants are the same. A wet nurse is regarded as a second mother, and usually pensioned for life. Indeed, a rich person has usually a host of pensioners—relations and old servants.

STAPLE INN.

THE handsome timbered front of Staple Inn in High Holborn, London, as it exists at the present time, is shown in our engraving on a preceding page. This quaint and picturesque old inn of Chancery was made famous, like many other London buildings, by Charles Dickens.

The hall of Staple Inn has been recently restored. It was here that Dr. Samuel Johnson wrote "Rasselas."

THE BOMBARDMENT OF PORT ARTHUR.

PORT ARTHUR, the scene of such exciting events during the war between Russia and Japan, and whose bombardment by the Japanese is represented in the above engraving, is a fortress situated at the extreme south of the peninsula of Liao-tung, which stretches down between the Gulf of Pechili and the Yellow Sea. It was at one time a Chinese naval arsenal and fortress, but was captured by the Japanese in 1894, who destroyed the defensive works. In 1898 it was leased to Russia, who made it again a stronghold.

THE JUVENILE PARTY.

*Miss Nelly M'Carty gave a grand party,
And who do you think were there?
Marigold Mary and Viscount Canary,
Red Tiger Lily and Joe Daffodily,
And Violet fragrant and fair;
Saucy Miss Buttercup and Johnny Jump-up—
A boatload from over the bay.
They danced to a fiddle with "hands down the middle,"
Ate oysters and ices, rich sauces and spices,
And went to bed sick the next day!*

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

TURNIPS are to be sown for succession in the first week of this month, and for a full autumn crop in the third week. Peas and beans should be sown for late crops. Early in the month vegetable marrows should be got out. Birds now begin to attack cherry trees, so the protection of the fruit should be attended to. Continue the destruction of insects: this is best accomplished by frequent washing and by directing tobacco smoke against them, or by strewing snuff or the fine powder of tobacco upon them. All planting out in beds and borders should now be finished. Perennials for planting out in the spring should now be sown if neglected last month.

DRAMATIC AUTHORSHIP.

THE remuneration of dramatists was simply scandalous at the commencement, and up till the middle of the nineteenth century. It is said that because Benjamin Webster declined to give Dion Bouicault the regulation remuneration—£100 an act—for "The Colleen Bawn," the playwright made his fortune. Dion accepted a percentage on the receipts in lieu of a sum down, and cleared £20,000 by the alteration.

WOMEN IN MANY LANDS.

A WONDERFUL similarity exists in the sayings about women current in various nations.

An old English saying: "If a man lose a woman and a farthing, he will be sorry he lost the farthing."

A Scottish one: "The next best thing to no wife is a good wife."

The French adage: "A man of straw is worth a woman of gold."

The Spanish rhyme has it: "Were a woman as little as she is good, a pea pod would make her a gown and a hood."

The German: "There are only two good women in the world—one is dead and the other can't be found."

The Arabian declares: "Words are women; deeds are men."

The Persian asserts that women and dragons are best out of the world.

NERVOUS BEFORE A PHONO-GRAPH.

It is not every vocalist who can sing so as to produce a good phonograph record. Many singers are subject to what may be called phonograph fright.

"When a singer," says Mr. Edison, "is up before an audience, he or she can tell whether the effect of the voice is pleasing or not by watching the countenances of the listeners. When, however, one sings into a dead instrument like the phonograph, without the slightest recognition as to whether the voice is properly tuned and pitched, the singer becomes rather nervous.

"I know some very capable singers, who can sing splendidly before an audience, but when it comes to getting their voice into the phonograph, they are dumb. I have brought people of great note out to the works, and paid them handsomely for their vocal efforts, only to find, when I came to reproduce these attempts on the phonograph, that the records were utterly worthless.

"One must have, indeed, a regular phonograph voice in order to make a good record. Some people can sing well into a phonograph who could not get up before an audience to save their lives; and, again, as I have said, some can sing before persons, but they cannot perform before a phonograph."

THE GHOST WAS COLD.

THIS is a true ghost story of an unconventional kind. A young lady arrived late at night on a visit to a friend. She awoke in the darkness to find a white figure at the foot of the bed. While she watched, the bed clothes were suddenly whisked off, and the apparition vanished.

After an anxious, not to say chilly, night, the visitor went down with little appetite for breakfast. At the table she was introduced to a gentleman, a very old friend of the family, who had, she learned, also been sleeping in the house. He complained of the cold.

"I hope you will excuse me," he said to his hostess, "but I found it so cold during the night that, knowing the room next mine was unoccupied, I took the liberty of going in and carrying off the bed clothes to supplement my own."

The room, as it happened, was not unoccupied, but he never learned his mistake.

SECRETS OF SUCCESS.

"WHAT is the secret of success?" asked the Sphinx.

"Push," said the Button.

"Never be led," said the Pencil.

"Take pains," said the Window.

"Always keep cool," said the Ice.

"Be up to date," said the Calendar.

"Never lose your head," said the Barrel.

"Make light of everything," said the Fire.

"Do a driving business," said the Hammer.

"Aspire to greater things," said the Nutmeg.

"Be sharp in all your dealings," said the Knife.

"Find a good thing and stick to it," said the Glue.

"Do the work you are suited for," said the Chimney.

THE ESSENCE OF SKIRMISHING.

IN the following maxims we have the essence of skirmishing as laid down by an expert in that art. They are well worthy of attention not only from those in the regular army, but from our Volunteer forces, on whose intelligence and training our safety as a nation may one of these days depend:—

*S*ight your rifle always carefully

*K*eeep your eyes open and your mouth shut, but your

*I*nformation must be trustworthy.

*R*epeat all signals, &c., quietly.

*M*usketry—Remember all you have been taught in fire discipline.

*I*nvariably take advantage of all cover.

*S*ee without being seen.

*H*oax your enemy.

*E*xplore every copse, hollow and building.

*R*emember that on you, your own life, your comrades, and the good name of your regiment depend.

A poor spirit is poorer than a poor purse.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

ABOUT the middle and end of the month full crops of celery, celeriac, and endive are to be planted. Early in the month French beans should be sown, and in the last week late crops of broccoli, colewort, and cauliflower. Medicinal and potherbs should now be gathered and dried, and such herbs should be propagated by slips and cuttings. Plant strawberries in pots for forcing next winter. Prune and train wall-trees, and destroy insects. Budding —of use in the case of many fruit trees, and the chief means of propagating roses—is the chief operation of the month. Hedges and evergreens require cutting at this season. Take up spring bulbs.

THE MARRIAGE OF PRINCESS ALICE OF ALBANY.

A ROYAL MARRIAGE.

THE Princess Alice of Albany was married to Prince Alexander of Teck at St. George's Chapel, Windsor, on the 10th of February, 1904. There was a brilliant assemblage of guests, including many members of the Diplomatic Body, Ministers of the Crown, Peers and Peeresses, Members of the House of Commons, and other distinguished people. The Prelates who officiated at the ceremony were the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of Peterborough.

Prince Alexander of Teck is the youngest of the three brothers of the Princess of Wales and cousin of his bride, and was born in 1874. Princess Alice of Albany was born on the 25th of February, 1883.

THE DUKE AND DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT.

HIS Royal Highness, Prince Arthur William Patrick Albert, the first Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, was born in 1850, and was the third son of the late Queen. His career in the Army, during which he has won great popularity, is well known. On the 6th of May, 1904, he resigned the command of the forces in Ireland, and left for England to undertake his new duties as Inspector-General.

On the 13th of March, 1879, his Royal Highness married Princess Louise Margaret Alexandra Victoria Agnes, daughter of Prince Frederick Charles of Prussia. They have three of a family, two daughters and a son.

FABULOUS PRICES FOR CLOTHES.

You can pay ten shillings for a suit of clothes, or you can pay anything up to ten or twenty guineas; while as for dresses or robes, they range in price from eightpence for a second-hand article to two thousand pounds for a resplendent garment that is too precious even to be shown in a shop window. The latter sum was given a few years ago by the wife of a reigning monarch for a dress which is said never to have been matched—a statement which one can quite believe. In the construction of it numbers of valuable sables were used.

It is not long since a bride who now bears a noble name went to the altar wearing a dress which cost a thousand pounds.

Very different, of course, is the case with women in the humble walks of life, and the contrast is worth noting. In the slums of Lambeth, in a street where the sun is seldom seen, there is a shop where a whole trousseau can be had for 25s., every article, from the hat down to the boots, being second-hand.

Few people of an economical turn of mind have the remotest conception of the vast amount of money that wealthy men and women of fashion spend on their clothes.

Ten guineas is not considered by some men an exorbitant sum to pay for a frock coat; while 25s. is frequently paid for a shirt, 60s. for a pair of silk pants, and three guineas for a pair of trousers. Half a guinea for a pair of socks or a tie is what many a gilded youth is prepared to pay. Walking boots run up to about £5 a pair.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

HOE and thin out parsnips. Sow winter and spring spinach in the beginning and end of the month. Begin to earth-up first-planted celery and leeks. Plant out broccoli, savoy, curly kale, and Brussels sprouts. A few coleworts may still be planted. Caterpillars should be looked for and destroyed. Savoy and cabbages, which are particularly subject to their attacks, should be sprinkled with lime on dewy mornings. In dry weather gooseberry and currant bushes should be netted over to save the ripening fruit till late in the autumn. Destroy wasps' nests, and take all necessary steps to save the ripening fruit on the walls from insects. Pick off dead leaves.

HOW SILHOUETTES WERE SO CALLED.

ABOUT 1759 silhouettes were in fashion; and some may not know that these black profiles were named after a French Minister of Finance. Because he was said to be stingy, it was considered a good joke to speak of cheap things as being à la Silhouette; and these black paper portraits being cheap, they received the Minister's name.

THIS OFTEN HAPPENS.

Husband: "We'll be late. Get your things on."

Wife: "My dear, it's raining, and the wind is blowing a hurricane."

Husband: "We have strong umbrellas."

Wife: "My dress will be ruined."

Husband: "Wear your waterproof."

Wife: "And you know you have a cold."

Husband: "I wouldn't miss that opera for—"

Wife: "Opera? This is not opera night; it's a prayer-meeting night."

Husband: "Oh! I wonder if our minister thinks people are idiots enough to stir out of the house such a night as this?"

WORRY AS A SUCCESS-KILLER.

PERHAPS there is nothing else so utterly foolish and unprofitable as a habit of worrying. It saps the nervous energy and robs us of the strength and vitality necessary for the real work of life. It makes existence a burden and weariness, instead of a perpetual joy and blessing, as it should be.

Poise and serenity are necessary to the complete development of character and true success. The man who worries is never self-centred, never perfectly balanced, never at his best; for every moment of mental anxiety takes away vitality and push, and robs him of manhood and power.

Worrying indicates a lack of confidence in our strength; it shows that we are unbalanced, that we do not lay hold of the universal energy which leaves no doubt, no uncertainty.

The man who does not worry, who believes in himself, touches the wires of infinite power. Never doubting, never hesitating, he is constantly reinforced from the Omnipotence that creates planets and suns.

The habit of worry is largely a physical infirmity; it is an evidence of lack of harmony in the mental system. The well-poised soul, the self-centred man, never wobbles or hesitates. The infinite balance-wheel preserves him from all shocks, and all accident or uncertainty. Enough vital energy has been wasted in useless worry to run all the affairs of the world.

FULL OF HIS SUBJECT.

Editor of the county newspaper: "I am sorry to hear, Parson, that you are displeased with the church announcements in our last issue."

Parson: "Displeased! Read this, sir. Next Sunday evening the Rev. Mr. Parsons will speak upon the evils of strong drink. The address should be well worth hearing, as Mr. Parsons is always full of his subject."

WHAT A CONTRAST IN INCOMES!

THE incomes of the professional classes in this country was a subject recently treated of by an American writer. The phrase "there's no success like success," might, he says, be changed to "there's no success like success in England." Every man—professional or otherwise—who gets to the top of his particular ladder in England, is paid not only in money, but in comforts, in homage, and in admiration, out of all proportion to those below him. The prizes are splendid, and the general average is paltry. This is shown by the following table:—

	per annum.
Annuities to fourteen members of the Royal family	£600,000
Living-wage miner with family (estimated by one of them)	under £80
Archbishop of Canterbury	£15,000
Average clerical income.	£120
Attorney-General	£13,000
Average barrister making anything	£240
Sir Andrew Clark, physician £18,000 to £20,000
Average medical man	£240
Head of great public school £6,000 to £8,000
Sub-master in small school	£100
Editor and part owner of great newspaper	£5,000
Hack writer	£160
Macaulay, "History of England"	£150,000
Scott's novels, etc.	about £200,000
Essayists, poets, majority of novelists	Practically nothing
Dissenting minister (very popular)	£1,000
Dissenting minister of least "drawing power"	£90
Judiciary (well paid)—
Lord Chief Justice	£8,000

MUCH TO BE DONE.

The bell strikes one. We take no note of Time, But from its loss. To give it then a tongue, Is wise in man. As if an Angel spoke, I feel the solemn sound. If heard aright, It is the knell of my departed hours: Where are they? With the Years beyond the Flood. It is the signal that demands dispatch: How much is to be done!

GEN: WOLFE, after Portrait by Ben: West.

THE DUKE OF WELLINGTON.

"September blow soft
 Tilt the fruit's in the loft."—OLD SAYING.

THE GREAT FIRE OF 1666

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

In the kitchen garden earth-up celery; plant cauliflowers, cabbages, broccoli, and small saladings. Sow lettuce and spinach, if not done in August, for spring crops. Lift onions and lay them on a dry shaded border or gravel walk. About the end of the month take up the most forward potatoes. In the fruit garden the chief work is the gathering and storing of the autumnal sorts of apples and pears. The summer pruning and training of fruit trees should now be finished. Plant strawberries for a main crop. In the flower garden remove at once all dead flowers and dead leaves, and keep down weeds—this is a lively time of the year with them. Sow hardy annuals.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

Dig up and store carrots and potatoes. Parsnips may be left in the ground till next month. Sow small salads and radishes in the first week, and mazagan beans and early frame peas in the last week. Continue to plant out cabbages for spring use. All kinds of apples and pears should now be carefully stored. Pinks, carnations, auriculars, etc., should be placed in their winter quarters. Propagation by cuttings should still be proceeded with, but it is to be observed that spring cuttings are far better than those taken late in autumn. Gather hollyhock seed and dahlia seed if ripe, and prepare beds for tulips, hyacinths, etc. Take up scarlet lobelias.

RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR: THE BLOWING UP OF THE PETROPAVLOVSK.

HEALTH AND GOOD SPIRITS.

THE ancient physicians diagnosed their cases according to temperament, and held that he or she of a cheerful, sanguine spirit was much the more likely to recover from any attack of ill-health. A cheerful mind induces good health, and good health induces a cheerful mind.

A BATTLESHIP BLOWN UP.

AN appalling disaster befel the Russian fleet at Port Arthur on the 13th of April, 1904. The great Russian battleship Petropavlovsk, as she was making for the roadstead, struck a mine, which exploded, and caused the vessel to turn turtle and sink. Of her whole crew of close on eight hundred men, fewer than fifty saved themselves by swimming to the shore. Admiral Makaroff went down with the ill-fated vessel, and another valuable life lost was that of M. Verestchagin, the painter.

The Petropavlovsk was a ship of 10,960 tons, and was built at St. Petersburg at a cost of £1,098,000.

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC.

THIS is one of the imposing buildings of modern London, and is situated in Prince Consort Road. The Royal College of Music was incorporated by royal charter in 1883 for the advancement of the science and art of music in the British Empire. The building, which is in the Renaissance style, was opened in May, 1894, by the Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII. It was designed by Sir Arthur Blomfield, A.R.A., and was built at what was thought the very moderate cost of about £50,000.

TRAVEL WHEN YOU CAN.

ONE lives quicker while travelling, each hour counting for many of one's stay-at-home days. And the rapid, sudden acquaintance with localities, the brief sojourns divested of responsibility, innocent of yesterday and to-morrow, bring with them a heightened possibility of human intercourse. There is a more rapid intuition of one another. And the stress of time, the feeling of now or never, begets a quick, sufficient stretching out of hands and clasping of personalities.

JACK AND I.

*I was so tired of Jack, poor boy,
And Jack was tired of me!
Most longed-for sweets will soonest cloy;
Fate had been kind, and we,
Two foolish spendthrift hearts, made waste
Of life's best gifts with eager haste.*

*Oh! tired we were. Time seems so long
When everything goes well!
The walls of home rose grim and strong;
Like prisoners in a cell
We clanked our marriage chain, and pined
For freedom we had left behind.*

*Tired, tired of love and peace we were,
Of every day's calm bliss!
We had no goal to win, since he
Was mine and I was his;
And so we sighed in mute despair,
And wished each other anywhere.*

*But sorrow came one day—the pain
Of Death's dark, awful fear!
Oh, then our hearts beat warm again,
Then each to each was dear;
It seemed that life could nothing lack,
While Jack had me, and I had Jack!*

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

FINISH taking up potatoes, carrots, beet, and parsnips. Take up early broccoli, endive, late cauliflowers and lettuce, and lay them in an open shed or in old cucumber or melon pits, which will protect them from frost and afford a supply during the winter months. Sow early frame peas and maza-gan beans for an early crop in the second week of the month. Strawberry beds should have all runners and dead leaves removed. In fine weather, and the earlier in the month the better, plant all sorts of fruit trees. Generally speaking, November is the best time for transplanting trees and shrubs. When the weather is favourable attend to the work of pruning and nailing.

THE KING'S VISIT TO IRELAND.

KING EDWARD IN IRELAND.

A HIGHLY successful visit was paid to Ireland by King Edward and Queen Alexandra in the spring of 1904. They left London on the 25th of April, and the following day arrived in the Green Isle and attended Punchestown Races.

A leading incident of the visit took place on the 28th of April, when the King laid the foundation stone of the new building of the Royal College of Science at Dublin.

From Dublin they went to Kilkenny, from Kilkenny to Waterford, and afterwards to Lismore Castle on a visit to the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire.

Their Majesties embarked at Kings-town for Holyhead on May 4th, and reached London on the following day.

AN ANGLER'S DODGE.

NOT long ago a smart member of a certain angling club obtained a prize in a very questionable manner.

In the course of the annual match he landed a fair-sized pike. The fish was only poorly fed, and in order to increase its weight he crammed a couple of hard-boiled eggs down the pike's throat.

This added weight just got the sharp angler into the first prize. The fraud never had been discovered but for the fact that it was resolved to give all the fish caught to the poor of the village.

Consequently, when the secretary of the angling club asked an old dame how she had enjoyed her fish, he received the astounding reply: "Vary weel, mister! But it's sich a pity to kill the fish when they lay sich eggs!"

The smart angler was made to disgorge the prize, and to hand in his card of membership.

"I CAN'T AFFORD THAT."

INTO a Melbourne daily newspaper office one day walked a tall, lanky countryman, who said he wanted an "In Memoriam" notice in the obituary column.

"My ole gov'nor died a year ago," he explained, "and I should like a bit o' poetry in the paper about him."

"All right," answered the clerk; "have you brought it with you?"

"No," said the rustic; "can't you fix me up a bit?"

"Certainly," replied the clerk. "Our charge for 'In Memoriam' notices is six shillings an inch."

A look of intense dismay passed over the countryman's face. "Good gracious!" he cried. "I can't afford that; and my gov'nor was six feet high."

THE IRONY OF LIFE.

How unfair are our own judgments sometimes, and how far out we sometimes are in our inferences. In illustration of which, take this poem by Mr. Thomas Hardy:—

*There is a house with ivied walls,
And mullioned windows worn and old
And the long dwellers in those halls
Have souls that know but sordid calls,
And daily dream of gold.*

*In blazing brick and plated show
Not far away a "villa" gleams,
And here a family few may know,
With book and pencil, viol and bow
Lead inner lives of dreams,*

*The philosophic passers say,
"See that old mansion mossed and fair,
Poetic souls therein are they,
And O that gaudy box! Away,
You vulgar people there."*

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

MANY of the operations of last month, such as transplanting, altering and laying down lawns, may be continued this month if the weather be open. In the kitchen garden a few peas and beans may be sown. Turn up the ground thoroughly for exposure to the frost and snow. If the weather be mild attend to the operation of pruning.

The roots of tender trees, such as the apricot and peach, should be mulched over, as they are often so far affected by frost as to be barren during the ensuing year. Inspect the fruit in the store room at regular and frequent intervals, and remove whatever is found to be in a state of decay. Collect dead leaves and rubbish.

OPENING THE ST. LOUIS EXHIBITION.

THE ST. LOUIS EXHIBITION.

THE St. Louis Exhibition or World's Fair was held in 1904 at St. Louis to celebrate the centenary of the Louisiana Purchase, by which the territory of Louisiana, in all a million square miles, was acquired from Napoleon in 1803-4.

It was opened on the 30th of April, and was on a bigger scale than any previous affair of the kind. About four million pounds was spent in making the grounds, building the exhibit palaces, inducing co-operation at home and abroad, and in advertising the fair.

GETTING ON IN THE WORLD.

It is every man's, and every woman's, ambition to get on in the world, and here is some advice on the subject to be thought over by those who in their eagerness to make progress flit from one thing to another, always hoping that the next thing will be better than the last.

"To get on in this world, you must be content to be always stopping where you are; to advance, you must be stationary; to get up, you must keep down; following riches is like following wild geese, and you must crawl after both on your belly: the minute you pop up your head, off they go whistling before the wind, and you see no more of them.

"If you haven't the art of sticking by nature, you must acquire it by art: put a couple of pounds of bird-lime upon your office stool, and sit down on it; get a chain round your leg, and tie yourself to your counter like a pair of shop scissors; nail yourself up against the wall of your place of business like a weasel on a barn-door, or the sign of the spread eagle."

BEGGARS IN IRELAND.

THE number of beggars in Ireland has largely decreased within the last quarter of a century. They are only to be found, in any large numbers, at show places much frequented by tourists, such as Killarney, and at large fair and race meetings. But even in the streets of cities and towns begging is winked at by the authorities; and there are many mendicants who follow it, though they could do at least as well otherwise, as an easy means of making a livelihood.

"Could you help a poor fellow to-day and the Lord save yez?" said a beggar to a Dublin publican.

"Get away," cried the shopkeeper, "I've had a dozen of your kind here to-day already."

"Shure, and it's meself that sadly knows how the profession is overrun," replied the beggar.

Recently the following was overheard between two old crones:—"Good morra to ye, Mrs. Fogarty," said one.

"Good morra, kindly, Judy," replied the other; "I hope I see you well!"

"Oh, very well entirely. So, Mrs. Fogarty, ye married yer daughter Kate. Did she get a good match?"

"Divil a better, praise be to God! She got Blind Darby Driscall on the Dyke, that makes more money than any three beggars in Cork."

"Ah, thin, but it's me that's glad to hear yer news. And did ye give her anythin'?"

"Faix, I did, thin! Didn't I give her the best side of Patrick Street, which, if well begged, is worth siven and sixpence a week."

A Parcel Post has also been established between this country and many foreign countries and the British Colonies and possessions generally. For rates and regulations, see the Post Office Guide.

Postage on Inland Registered Newspapers.

Prepaid Rate.—On each Registered Newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, the postage when prepaid is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more Registered Newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate of postage than would be chargeable on a Book Packet or Letter of the same weight—viz. one halfpenny for 2 oz. or fraction of 2 oz.

Foreign and Colonial Sample Post.

This post is absolutely restricted to bona fide trade samples and scientific specimens. The rate of postage is 1d. for the first 4 oz. and 3d. per 2 oz. thereafter.

Post and Letter Cards.

Post Cards, bearing a halfpenny impressed stamp, are available for transmission between places in the United Kingdom only. They are sold at 10 for 5 1/2d., or of finer quality, 10 for 6d. They can also be had in smaller numbers or singly. Reply Cards are also sold.

Letter Cards are sold at 8 for 9d. Smaller numbers in proportion. Foreign Post Cards, 1d., reply, 2d.

Money Orders for the United Kingdom.

Money Orders are granted in the United Kingdom at the following rates:—

For sums not exceeding £1	2d.
Above £1, and not excdg. £3	3d.
" £3	10d.
" £10	20d.
" £20	30d.
" £30	40d.
" £100	10s.

Money may be sent by Telegraph Money Order at the same rates as for ordinary Inland Money Order, plus supplementary fee of 2d. and cost of official telegram of advice.

Money Orders payable Abroad.

Money Orders, payable abroad, are to be had at all Money Order offices. For rates and conditions, see the Postal Guide.

Postal Orders.

Many new postal orders are now issued; their number is now to be forty; that is to say, there are to be orders for every 6d. up to 19s., and also for 20s. and 21s., the charge being 3d. for orders from 6d. to 1s. 6d.; 1d. for orders from 2s. to 10s. 6d.; and 1 1/2d. for orders above that sum.

Registration and Compensation.

By the prepayment of a fee of twopence any postal packet (parcels included) may be registered to any place in the United Kingdom. Every packet to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it. The Postmaster-General will give compensation up to a maximum limit of £120 for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Postal Packets of all kinds. The ordinary fee of 2d. secures £5; the payment of 3d. £10; 4d. £20; 5d. £30; 6d. £40; 7d. £50; 8d. £60; 9d. £70; 10d. £80; 11d. £90; 1s. £100; 1s. 1d. £110; 1s. 2d. £120.

Post Office Savings Banks.

No deposit of less than a shilling is received, nor any penny, and not more than £50 in one year. No further deposit is allowed when the amount standing in depositor's name amounts to £200 inclusive of interest. Interest is allowed at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent. (or sixpence in the pound) per annum—that is, at the rate of one halfpenny per pound per month.

At every Post Office in the United Kingdom forms for making small deposits are issued gratuitously. Each form has twelve divisions, in each of which a penny postage stamp can be placed; when the twelve are filled in, it is received at any Post Office Savings Bank as a shilling.

Any person can invest, at any Post Office Savings Bank, small sums in Government Stock. Not more than £200 can be invested in any one year. The amount held by the investor must not exceed £500.

The Royal Family, etc.

THE ROYAL FAMILY.

His Majesty Edward VII., King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperor of India, born November 9, 1841; married March 10, 1863, to Princess Alexandra of Denmark (born 1st December, 1844); succeeded his mother, Queen Victoria, January 22, 1901.

CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN.

George Frederick Ernest Albert, Prince of Wales, born June 3, 1865. H.R.H. married July 6, 1893, H.R.H. Victoria Mary of Teck, and has issue—Prince Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David, born June 23, 1894; Prince Albert Frederick Arthur George, born December 14, 1895; Princess Victoria Alexandra Alice Mary, born April 25, 1897; Prince Henry William Frederick Albert, born March 31, 1900; Prince George Edward Alexander Edmund, born Dec. 20, 1902.

REGISTERS OF BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, AND DEATHS.

Copies of these are kept at Somerset House, and may be searched on payment of a fee of one shilling. If a certified copy of any entry be required, the charge for that, in addition to the shilling for the search, is two shillings and sevenpence, which includes a penny for stamp duty. The registers contain an entry of births, deaths, and marriages since 1st July, 1837. Copies can always be obtained from the Registrar for the district, or the Superintendent Registrar who has the custody of the registers (including those of persons married at the churches) when filled.

MARRIAGES.

In the case of marriage by banns, if the contracting parties reside in different parishes, the publication must be made in the churches of each parish for three consecutive Sundays. If three months be permitted to elapse after the third time of publication, the banns become useless, and the parties must either obtain a licence or submit to the republication of the banns. Civil marriages can be performed before a duly licensed Registrar.

LAWN MOWERS Repaired and Sharpened.

After many years' careful study and practical experience in the repairing and sharpening of Lawn Mowers and our Machinery possessing all the latest improvements, being thoroughly rigid, automatic in action, and having no vibration—which secures a perfect edge—we are thus in a position to execute first-class work on the shortest notice.

TESTIMONIALS.

From Mr THOS. WILSON, The Gardens, Glamis Castle. — Will you please send as soon as convenient for our LAWN MOWERS for their Annual Overhaul. I may say that your careful and efficient handling of these Machines during the last eleven seasons has given me great satisfaction. The 36-in. MOWER has cut almost continuously for five months this last season without a hitch. It will give me great pleasure to recommend you to my friends for prompt and accurate attention, combined with economy.

From Mr THOMAS SHIEL, Superintendent, Forfar Cemetery. — After having had several years' experience of your ability in Repairing and Sharpening LAWN MOWERS, also having all the latest Improvements in Machinery for doing the same, and giving strict attention to orders, I can with every confidence recommend your services to any one.

From Mr WILLIAM REID, Gardens, Cortachy. — I am pleased to say that all the LAWN MOWERS, Large and Small, you have Repaired and Sharpened for me have given every satisfaction. The new delivery apparatus you made for the HORSE MOWER this Spring is quite a success.

From Mr GEORGE DORWARD, Gardener, Westby House. — During the sixteen years you have Repaired the LAWN MOWERS for me, the work has been first-class, and has given me every satisfaction.

HORSESHOEING.

This Branch of the Business is conducted on scientific principles. Every description of Shoeing done with the greatest care by first-class workmen.

THE MACKINTOSH MATCH PLOUGH

CREATURES OF THE SEA.

BEING THE

Life Stories of Some Sea-Birds, Beasts, and Fishes.
With 40 Illustrations by THEODORE CARRERAS.

EXTRACT FROM THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

"I feel that I have done very much less than bare justice to my marine friends, far less than I had hoped. But still, I do feel that in many instances I have been enabled to bring before my readers some first-hand glimpses into that intimate life of the sea which is so little known, and accounts of which may be sought for in vain in natural histories. Here I have great hopes that some measure of success has attended my sincere efforts to depict life in and upon the ocean as it has been personally known to me."

SPERM WHALES AT DINNER.
Greatly reduced from "Creatures of the Sea."

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS. — The Cachalot's Fight for Power—A Sperm Whale Baby—Harpooning Blackfish—Sperm Whales at Dinner—The Cachalot's Death Struggle—The Right Whale and Its foes—A Mother Whale Pursued by Sharks The Haunts of the Walrus—Sea-Elephants—A Fur Seal Rookery—Some Typical Sharks—Harpooning a Sleeping Turtle—Awaiting the Turtle—A Deep Sea Beast of Prey (Giant Octopus)—Giant Squid and Common Loligo—Deep Sea Nightmares—The 'Daedalus' Sea-Serpent, and its most probable Explanation—The Albacore's Narrow Escape—Breeding Place of the Albacore—A School of Bonito—A School of Flying Fish attacked by Albacore—A Shark seizing a Dolphin—Netting Mackerel—Horse Mackerel and Garfish—Line Fishing for Cod on the 'Banks'—Pollock Feeding on their Young—In the Herring Curing House—How the Whiting is Caught—Barracouta—The Albatross—Left to his own resources—Whalebirds—Strange Companions—Cape-Pigeons—The Fulmar Petrel—Stormy Petrel teaching its Young to Fly—Boobies—Penguins—The Frigate Bird at Work.

A New Book of Daily Gems from Bishop Handley Moule.

Imperial 16mo, cloth gilt, 3/6.
Presentation Edition in Limp Lambskin, round corners, full gilt side and back, and gilt edges, 4/6 net.

WITH HEART AND MIND.

A Book of Daily Thoughts. Being selections from the Works of
Handley C. G. Moule, LORD
BISHOP OF DURHAM, Author of
"Thoughts for the Sundays of the Year." Compiled by Louise Buckland, with a sketch of Bishop
Moule's Life by A. R. Buckland,
M.A. Artistically printed in red and black.

The English Churchman says:—"For each day in the year there are provided a few sentences on some Scripture doctrine, precept, counsel, or promise, suitable for meditation and calculated to move the heart in prayer, confession, thanksgiving, or praise. The compiler has exercised good judgment in her choice of topics, and the arrangement of the well-printed matter is in the best of taste. As a gift-book the volume ought to become exceedingly popular."

A New Book of Family Devotion.

New Editions of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.

Illustrated by HAROLD COPPING.

The Text claims to be as accurate as the very best edition, since it contains all the great author's latest corrections. The artist, who stands in the front rank of his profession, has succeeded in portraying as few previous artists have done the chief characters in Bunyan's masterpiece.

The Publishers' Circular says:—"Mr. Copping's illustrations are charmingly designed and beautifully executed."

The Scotsman says:—"These editions are remarkably cheap and excellent."

The Queen says:—"The coloured illustrations are really excellent."

The Times says:—"Mr. Harold Copping achieves some pretty pictures."

The Bookman says:—"These editions are veritable treasures for prize-givers and receivers."

The Expository Times says:—"It surpasses all editions that have gone before it."
