TO THE PUBLIC.

The Compiler of the following sheets has collected, from actual survey, as many of the names, designations, and places of business, of the Merchants, Manufacturers, Shop-keepers, &c. in this City and Suburbs, as he could possibly obtain; but as omissions and mistakes are unavoidable in a work of this kind, he humbly requests the indulgence of the Public for any errors that may appear.

From the countenance given to four editions of the Glasgow Directory, the Publishers are induced to bring forward a fifth Edition, in which are inserted the numbers of the Shops and Warehouses, according to the Police Act. The Public are solicited, when Removals, or Change of Partners, &c. take place, to leave notice thereof at the shop of the Publishers, on or before the 1st of June, so that they may be inserted in their proper place in the next edition.

On the yearly rent of subjects rented or valued	An annual assessment not exceeding
At 4l. and under 6l. sterling yearly, -	3½d. per pound sterling,

At 10l. and under 15l. do. -	7d. do.
And at 15l. sterling yearly or upwards,	10d. do.

The City is divided into twenty-four Wards, or Diſtricts; under the inſpection of twenty-four Commiſſioners, choſen upon the firſt Monday of September annually. Mr. Walter Graham, Maſter of Police; 1 Sergeant; 14 Officers; and 74 Watchmen.

REGULATIONS.

A Conſtable with four of the above Officers are to attend alternately at the Police Office, Candleriggs, half an hour before the Watchmen take their Station, to call the roll of the Watchmen, and mark ſuch as are abſent. The Conſtable and Officers are thereafter to patrole the ſtreets until between two and three in the morning, or longer if neceſſary; to obſerve if the Watchmen are doing their duty; to apprehend vagrants and diſorderly perſons: and to give, in writing, a report of the whole tranſactions, in the morning, to the Maſter of Police.

The Watchmen are to be on their reſpective Stations, in the months of April to September incluſive, at 10 o'clock at night, and continue till 5 in the morning; and in the months of October to March incluſive, at 9 o'clock at night, and continue until 6 in the morning; and to ſweep the ſtreets twice a week before 9 in the morning.

The Compiler of this Work having obtained a complete Copy of the plan adopted in numbering the houſes, ſhops, &c. within the City, in April 1802, he thinks it may not be an unacceptable addition to inſert it at length, for the ſake of information and caution to the inhabitants.

THE Lord Provoſt and Magiſtrates having given orders that all the houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, and cloſſes, or other entries within the City ſhall be numbered with figures painted on the doors or other conſpicuous parts thereof; and the name of each ſtreet ſhall be painted on the corner houſes, and having remitted the execution of it to the Board of Commiſſioners under the Police Act, intimation is hereby given, that any perſon who ſhall wilfully deface any of theſe numbers or names of Streets, when painted, ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit a ſum not above 40s. nor under 10s. Sterling: and, in future, in all new paintings of ſhop doors, &c. where a temporary defacing of the number may be unavoidable, the occupier will be careful to replace the original number on a conſpicuous part, and in a figure eaſily legible, within the ſpace of ten days after having been ſo defaced, certifying to thoſe who refuſe or neglect to do ſo, if their doors be without number for above 10 days, that they are liable in the ſame penalties as thoſe are, who wilfully deface numbers, as mentioned above. See Advertiſement publiſhed in all the Glaſgow Newſpapers, and poſted and put up on the moſt conſpicuous parts of the City, dated 20th April, 1802.

The following is the plan adopted by the Board of Police in consequence of the above remit from the Magiſtrates.

I. The name of every Street is painted on each of the two Corner-houſes, at each end of it, and alſo on each Corner-houſe where it croſſes any other Street.

II. Every Street has a ſet of Numbers for itſelf, beginning at No. 1, and going on progreſſively to the greateſt Number contained in it.

III. Every Front-door in the Ground-flats, and every intervening Cloſs or Entry, has a progreſſive Number; for example, No. 1, being a Shop or Houſe, a Cloſs or Entry coming next, is No. 2, and a Shop next again, is No. 3, and ſo on.

IV. The No. 1. in each Street, is put on the firſt Front-door on the left-hand ſide, and continuing on that ſide with the Numbers progreſſively, to the extremity; it croſſes over to the oppoſite ſide, and the following Number is painted on the firſt Front-door there, continuing the progreſſion to the end oppoſite to which it began.

V. As a Ground-flat preſently entered to by only one Front-door, may be altered into Shops, &c. ſo as to have two or more Front-doors, and thereby occaſion an alteration in the Numbers; in order to guard againſt this, where any ſuch houſe occurs, as many Numbers are omitted as it may be thought this houſe may produce of additional Front-doors. If the Houſe is fifty feet long three Numbers are omitted; if forty feet long, two Numbers; and if thirty feet long, one Number. For example, if ſuch a houſe falls to be No. 20, and if fifty feet long, the one Door that is in it, is painted No. 20, and the Numbers 21, 22, and 23, are omitted; (but, if the houſe has no Front-door, but enters by a Cloſs belonging to the adjoining Tenement, then No. 20, is alſo omitted) and the next door or Cloſs is painted No. 24: but this rule is confined to Streets where there is a probability of ſuch alterations taking place.

VI. As in ſeveral of the New Streets vacant Grounds occur, a rule ſimilar to the laſt is obſerved; that is, by omitting four Numbers for every fifty feet of vacant Ground, and ſo in proportion for a leſs quantity of Ground.

VII. Every Cloſs or other Entry, has within it a ſet of Numbers for itſelf, beginning at No. 1, and going on progreſſively to the greateſt Number contained in it. For example, a Cloſs, whatever its Street number may be, the firſt Houſe, Warehouſe, &c. within, on the left-hand ſide, is painted No. 1; the next No. 2, and ſo on to the head of the Cloſs; then croſſing, it returns on the right-hand ſide, back to the Cloſs: but where it happens that a Cloſs has no Houſes on the left-hand ſide, then the No. 1. is painted on the Door that is fartheſt up in the Cloſs on the right-hand ſide; and where a Stair-caſe contains more poſſeſſions than one, after the Numbers 1, 2, and ſo on, have been painted on the ſeveral Doors, whatever Number it contains in whole, is painted in abridgment on the Lintel or Entry to it. For example, if it contains five Numbers within, there is painted on the Lintel or moſt conſpicuous part of the Entry into it, No. 1 to 5.

VIII. The blanks left by omitting Numbers, as in Clauses V. and VI. it is probable, will be found sufficient for all additional Front-doors, which may for a long time be produced. But, if it shall happen that a Front-door is produced, for which no Number has been left, such Door is to be painted with an intermediate Number. For example, if this Door comes immediately between No. 20. and 21. it is to be painted No. $\frac{20}{2}$. to signify, that it is the second possession of this Number.

This rule will easily apply to possessions divided within Closses, &c. and is greatly preferable, on many accounts, to any attempt to regulate, by new painting, the whole Numbers in a Street, or in a Clos.

If the Inhabitants are attentive to keep up their Numbers in a legible state, agreeably to the above, it will be easy for the Publisher of this Work to give the shortest and at same time the most accurate direction to their lodgings, even where these are within Closses, by inserting the name, Street number, and interior number, all in a line, E. G. John Brown, No. 22, 11, High-street; that is, in Clos, No. 22, and No. 11, within that Clos. And they will observe, that if they suffer their Numbers to be obliterated, and do not immediately replace them, they incur penalties.

The Constable and Officers are thereafter to patrole the streets untill between two and three in the morning, or longer if necessary, to observe if the Watchmen are doing their duty; to apprehend vagrants and disorderly persons; and to give, in writing, a report of the whole transactions, in the morning, to the Master of Police.

N. B. If the inhabitants are attentive to keep up their numbers in a legible state, it will be easy for the Publisher of this work to give the shortest, and at the same time most accurate, direction to their lodgings, even where these are within Closes, by inserting their name, Street-number, and interior number, all in a line, E. G. John Brown, No. 22, 11, High-street; that is, in Close, No. 22, and No. 11, within that Close. And they will observe, that if they suffer their numbers to be obliterated, and do not immediately replace them, they incur penalties.

PREFACE.

In publishing a new and improved edition of the Glasgow Post-Office Annual Directory, the Proprietors trust it will be manifest on perusal, that no exertion has been spared on their part to render the work worthy of extensive support from a discerning Public; at the same time, they would most respectfully observe, that since their first Publication, considerable additions have been adopted at various periods, and notwithstanding the increased expenses attending these improvements, the price charged has remained always the same.

At the extensively expressed desire of many intelligent Merchants and others, the Proprietors have been induced this year to add a carefully compiled Street Directory, which, with previous additions, will augment the work to nearly treble its original size; and it is gratifying to the Proprietors to be able to adopt these important improvements by a very trifling advance in price.

In comprehensiveness of arrangement, and accuracy of details, it will stand in favourable contrast with any other published work of the same nature, and will now embody the following Lists alphabetically arranged:—

Streets, Squares, and Lanes, with reference to their localities.

The Names and Addresses of Bankers, Merchants, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and Principal Inhabitants of the City and Suburbs.

Professions and Trades distinctly classified.

To which is added, for the first time,

A Street Directory, in which the Principal Inhabitants are enumerated according to their respective numbers.

Also,

An Appendix, containing the fullest and most minute Post-Office Instructions and Regulations hitherto published.

Together with the Departures and Arrivals of Trains, Steamers, Carriers, &c.

With other useful local information indispensably necessary to the Merchant and Trader.
