Employment Bureau for Retired Officers of the Army

This Bureau has been temporarily closed down from 1 Feb. 1944.

Its functions, which were to assist officers who have held commissions in the Regular Army and Indian Army to obtain employment in civil life on their retirement, have been transferred to a special section in the Appointments Branch of the Ministry of Labour and National Service.

This section is staffed by retired officers of the Army, and by officers from the Royal Navy and Royal Air Force, to deal with their respective services.

Officers holding regular commissions who have retired or are about to retire, and who are desirous of obtaining civil employment should register their names with this special section, with the assurance that every effort will be made to find suitable employment for them.

Officers holding emergency commissions should similarly apply to the Appointments Branch of the Ministry of Labour and National Service.

Kingston-on-Thames.

This Home (opened in February, 1854) was founded in 1851, in memory of H.R.H. Adolphus Frederick, Duke of Cambridge, K.G., to provide a home for widows of Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Army. They are not to be under 50 years of age, but there is no restriction as to religious persuasion.

Since its opening, 522 widows have been elected. There are 57 widows in the Home, in addition to 10 widows receiving out-pensions. Each inmate has a furnished room, and receives old age and Widows pensions with the supplementary Pension and a monthly allowance of coal in addition to other amenities.

The total funded income of the Charity falls short of the estimated average annual cost by about £1,000.

The Committee make an urgent appeal for additional subscribers, as every year a considerable number are lost through death.

Most Corps, Regiments and Regimental Depots make annual subscriptions; but the Committee have also relied upon retired Officers, and it is to them that a special appeal is made.

Every person subscribing half-a-guinea annually is entitled to one vote at each election, and a donation of five guineas ensures one vote at each election throughout life.

ROYAL SOLDIERS' DAUGHTERS' HOME

FOUNDED IN 1855 FOR THE MAINTENANCE, CLOTHING AND EDUCATION OF DAUGHTERS OF SOLDIERS, ORPHANS OR NOT.

PATRON :

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Lloyds Bank Ltd., Cox's and King's Branch, 6, Pall Mall, London, S.W.1, or by the Secretary, at the Offices of the Home.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 140 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement, but while evacuated to Moor Park, available accommodation is somewhat less.

The need of such a Home is apparent from the fact that there is always a long waiting list for admission.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would under pre-war conditions provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

and 12 others.

A candidate for registration for admission to the School must be the son of a warrant officer, non-commissioned officer or man who is serving or has served in the Regular Army, or of an officer who has been promoted from the ranks to a commission in the Regular Army. Preference in general is given to orphans, and to those whose fathers have been killed in action or have died while in the Service or after leaving the Service. Those selected by the Board of Commissioners are admitted between the ages of nine and eleven years, provided they reach the required medical and educational standards. The School's waiting list is a long one, but each application is considered on its merits, the career and character of the father while in the Service being always considered as principal recommendations.

The normal age for leaving the School is fifteen years, when boys may (a) join His Majesty's Army, (b) return to their homes or to an occupation in civil life, or (c) if recommended, continue their education in the Upper School until the age of nineteen years.

There is no obligation for boys to enter the Army from the School, but those who do not intend to do so are not retained beyond the age of fifteen years.

Two Scholarships are available for boys who qualify at an Army Entrance Examination for admission to the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, or the Royal Military College, Sandhurst. The value of a Scholarship is sufficient to cover the whole of a boy's expenses until he enters the Army as an officer.

Further information will be given on application to the Secretary at the School.
