THE SANDEMAN GENEALOGY

THE Sandeman Genealogy

COMPILED BY

JOHN GLAS SANDEMAN

FROM FAMILY NOTES, MEMORANDA, AND

THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT BY

DAVID PEAT

PRINTED FOR CIRCULATION

AMONG MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY BY

GEORGE WATERSTON & SONS
EDINBURGH

1895

“Honoured Cousin,

“I received yours and I am satisfied to find that ancient inclination in you, that was esteemed amongst all nations ebin in the Jewish families, and as I hate rediculus vanitic, so I love that men class themselves, as fare as writ or true tradition, can bring them.”

From MS. in the Advocates' Library, Edinburgh, entitled “Nisbet's Genealogical Collections.”

INTRODUCTION.

THE plan of this Genealogy is believed to be unique, and the invention of the original compiler, Mr David Peat, late of Perth, a descendant in the fourth generation of David Sandeman and Margaret Ramsay. It has the advantage of ready reference in the book form. On every page the descent of each name from the head of the family can be clearly understood by reading from the one column of generation to the other. Thus, on page 35, we read that Sir Robert Groves Sandeman was the second child of Major-General R. T. Sandeman, who was the seventh child of William Sandeman, who was the fifth child of the second marriage of Thomas Sandeman, who was the twelfth child of David Sandeman and Margaret Ramsay.

The embellishments of this volume consist of the Arms of William Sandeman of Luncarty, opposite the title-page; the plain Sandeman Shield on the title-page; the ex libris label of Albert George Sandeman, Esq., Governor of the Bank of England, opposite the commencement of the Index; and the ex libris label of Lieut.-Colonel John Glas Sandeman at the end of the Index. The abstract Sandeman Coat of Arms is tooled on the binding of the volume.

William Sandeman of Luncarty, in the county of Perth, recorded his Arms in the Public Register of all Arms and Bearings in Scotland on the 18th day of April 1780. Argent—The emblem of Truth, a naked woman standing on a terrestrial globe, issuing out of the base; in her dexter hand an open book; in her sinister, which is elevated above her head, a branch of palm; on her breast the sun in its splendour, all proper, and a veil round her middle of the first within a bordure azure charged with ~~five~~^{SIX} mullets or.

The same Coat of Arms, with variation of the cadency bordure, has since been registered by four members of the family.

There is no evidence of any Coat of Arms being borne by the family previous to this registration by William Sandeman of Luncarty. There is every likelihood that this Coat was a design of his own, in which he was probably helped by his son-in-law, Robert Boswell, W.S., Edinburgh, who was then Lyon Clerk. Both were enthusiastic followers of Mr John Glas in his religious views, and the symbols of the Coat strongly express the Divine Truth as set forth in his writings.

The Crest is the Rock—the Truth as confessed by the Apostle Peter. The naked female figure is the conventional symbol of Truth, but the Truth here represented conveys the Palm branch of Peace to the earth upon which she stands; she has the “Word” in her hand open, and the light of the Gospel of the sun of Righteousness shining in all its glory on her breast (2 Cor. iv. 5-6). Her white veil may represent the white garment of Righteousness, and the stars or mullets in the blue bordure probably refer to Him who is “the bright and morning star.” So that the Arms stand as a Confession of Faith, while the motto may be freely translated “The Truth formerly testified by the blood of Christ is now testified by the sincerity of those who believe.”

Since the issue of the Genealogy in the "Clan" Magazine, the following corrections have been found necessary:—

Page 24.—In the family of Imrie Bell and Jane Walker the 5th name should be Helena Elizabeth; the 6th Henry Alexander, while Eva and Alfred are the 7th and 8th of the family.

Also, on page 24 the 7th of James T. Walker's family should be named Janette Cheveria Hamilton Walker.
